Billie Sol Pauses Here

ALA

Billie Sol Estes appeared here yesterday, apparently en route to a North Alabama speaking engagement, and conferred with Negro and white lawyers.

Estes had no comment after talking to William N. Kunstler, an attorney for the American Civil Liberties Union, and Orzell Billingsley, a Negro attorney.

The former Texas financier, who told a Negro audience in Montgomery Sunday night that segregation is un-Christian and un-American, was scheduled to speak at a Negro school in Sheffield, a school principal said.

Estes, of Pecos, Tex., has been sentenced to 23 years in jail by state and Federal courts for fraudulent agriculture dealings that allegedly helped make him a millionaire.
